

Parental Involvement Policy

We are committed to working together to provide the best education for your children. Please review our current Parental Involvement Plan. We encourage and need your input in making our school the best it can be. Thank you for staying involved in your child's education.

Statement of Purpose:

The faculty of our school is committed to providing a quality education for all students and to recognizing the essential role of parents and the value of their input.

Goal 1: Provide parents with the opportunity to have input in the Parental Involvement Plan at the district level and at their child's school.

Strategies

Provide parents with information about parental involvement via the student handbook, visitation day, or open house and parent letters.

Provide parents with opportunities to give input and suggestions for revision of the district or school plan.

Provide parents with a copy of the district's parental involvement plan.

Goal 2: Provide instruction to parents on how to incorporate developmentally appropriate learning activities in the home environment.

Strategies

Compile documents providing information on how parents and guardians can assist their children in studying and learning at home.

Post relevant articles about parenting and schools in the web.

Goal 3: Provide an opportunity for parents and their children's school to read and approve a School-Parent Compact that is to be implemented annually and includes: the school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment; the way in which each parent will be responsible for supporting their child's learning; and strategies that will address the importance of ongoing communication between teachers and parents.

Strategies

Provide opportunities to review the Compact with parents during visitation day, school advisory council meetings, workshops, etc.

Goal 4: Provide notice and information under the "Parents Right to Know" requirements to all parents in Title I schools, in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents can understand.

Strategies

Notify parents through letters home, the school's website, parent-school organization meetings and other means of the status of the faculty and staff regarding the highly qualified and meeting required standards.

Notify parents, via a letter, if their teacher or paraprofessionals in their child's classroom are not highly qualified.

Goal 5: Provide opportunities for parental involvement capacity building at the district and school levels.

Strategies

Provide opportunities for parents interested in volunteering.

Provide activities at a variety of times.

Utilize a variety of communication techniques to enhance parent participation.

Provide opportunities to evaluate and identify barriers to successful parental involvement.
